

McKay's Week-At-A-Glance (WAAG):

Oct. 20th - Oct. 24th

Hello McKay Families!

On Friday we had a Sharing Assembly- a chance for some students and classes to share their learning in informal presentations. We saw art from our kindergartens, and watched a slide show about our grade 6 & 7 students' experiences at Outdoor Education. We also had Popo & Lola, the artists who created our cargo container mural, in attendance to share about the project, and celebrate it's completion. The art piece is titled "Again and Again" and is meant to be a continuous looping image that you can view by walking around the cargo container. It was created based on the ideas of our students, and depicts some of their experiences as students at McKay, capturing the cycles of growth, school years, and feelings.

Friday evening was also our PAC Family Photo Night fundraiser. A huge thank you to our PAC Fundraising Coordinator, Wendy Mok, for organizing this opportunity, and volunteering her time for this successful event! If you have any time to offer the PAC in support of fundraising initiatives this year, please reach out to Wendy at mckayelementarypac@gmail.com.

The week ahead is our first ministry learning update of the year- conferences- an important time to learn about where your children are at in their learning at this point in the year (particularly in numeracy, literacy, and social emotional learning), and some of our shared hopes and goals for their development moving forward. Before or after your children's conference, you may wish to stop by the book fair in the library, or check out the PAC Spirit Wear samples by the office. Right now the PAC has McKay Spirit Wear clothing samples in the hallway near the office if you would like to try on any sizes prior to ordering, and there is a Scholastic Book Fair in the Library (details in the letter below from Ms. Mui.)

Have a cozy weekend in the rain!

Significant Dates in our Community

Diwali: Oct 20 - Nov 5
Installation of Scriptures as Guru Granth: Oct 20

Diwali, also known as the Festival of Lights, is a five-day festival celebrated by millions of Hindus, Jains, and Sikhs around the world. It symbolizes the spiritual victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance. The name comes from the Sanskrit word deepavali, meaning "row of lights".

The Guru Granth Sahib is the central religious scripture of Sikhism, regarded by Sikhs as the living, eternal, and final Guru. Sikhs treat the holy book with the highest reverence, considering it the embodiment of the ten historical Gurus.

Information Items for Families:

1. Families, when your children are sick, please keep them at home until their symptoms resolve and they are ready to fully participate in all school activities, both indoors and outdoors. This will help all of us to stay healthy during the cold and flu season ahead!

We also teach and encourage our students to wash hands frequently, and to cover their coughs and sneezes.

Here is a handy resource book from Vancouver Coastal Health about many common childhood illnesses:

October 14th, 2025

Dear Parents and Families:

The Scholastic Book Fair is coming back to McKay Elementary!

We are excited to announce that we will be having a Scholastic Book Fair taking place on Monday, October 20th to Thursday, October 23rd, 2025 (Hours are on the reverse side). Attached is a flyer, and students will be able to view the Book Fair with their classes during their weekly library period. This wonderful literacy event is always popular amongst students, parents, and teachers and encourages a love of reading.

Each purchase helps raise funds to build and improve our library collection, and there are two methods to participate:

1. Your child can purchase in person during their regularly weekly library visit (Divisions 8 to 13) or during school hours at recess or lunch breaks (Divisions 1 to 7, see scheduled days), and students with their parents can purchase afterschool and at conference times.
2. Your child can purchase a title/titles from the paper flyer using the "Books I Want to Read" Form and provide the exact cash payment. Please include your child's name and division # on the form. These forms and cash payments should be returned to the school librarian by Thursday, October 23rd. The books are scheduled to be delivered to your child on Tuesday, October 28th, 2025

LUCKY DRAW CONTEST: To encourage reading and for supporting this literacy fundraising, students who purchase books in person or using the flyer order form by Wednesday, October 22nd will be entered into an early bird lucky draw to win free Book Fair money (6 winners, prizes range from a $5 Book Fair voucher to a $20 Book Fair voucher). The winners will be announced on Thursday, October 23rd during the morning announcements.

We look forward to seeing you and your families during our Scholastic Book Fair and thank you, in advance, for supporting this great literacy fundraiser! Mostly, thank you for believing in books and the importance reading has on your child's future.

Sincerely,

Ms. M. Mui
